

Northern White Cedar Field Tour
October 4th 2019 8:00 am – 4:00 pm
Greensboro, Vermont

Morning coffee and light snacks will be provided. Please bring your own lunch and water for the day. Site visits will require carpooling and off trail walking up to one mile on uneven ground and steep terrain.

Meeting location: Greensboro United Church Fellowship Hall, 165 E Craftsbury Road, Greensboro, VT

Parking: Caspian Beach Public Lot, 108 Beach Road, Greensboro VT

Walking directions to the Church: From the Caspian Beach Public Lot walk east on Beach Road to the intersection with Breezy Ave. Turn north and follow sidewalks along Breezy Ave / East Craftsbury Road to the Greensboro United Church. Total walking distance is 0.25 miles.

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 8:00 – 8:20 | Arrive, register, coffee light snacks |
| 8:20 – 8:30 | Welcome, Ross Morgan, Consulting Forester |
| 8:30 – 9:00 | Understanding Northern White Cedar in the Landscape: Ecology, Natural Communities and Regional Importance, Liz Thompson, Vermont Land Trust |
| 9:00 – 9:10 | The Cedar Club, Origins of the 2012 NWC Silvicultural Guide, Charles Tardif, Maibec |
| 9:10 – 9:35 | Management Decisions and Silviculture of Lowland Cedar, Laura Kenefic, U.S. Forest Service, Northern Research Station |
| 9:35 – 10:00 | Silviculture of Upland Cedar, Jean-Claude Ruel, Laval University |
| 10:00 – 10:30 | Carpool set up and travel to Site 1 – Olmstead Forest |
| 10:30 – 11:30 | Site 1 - Olmsted Forest – Management of old field cedar |
| 11:30 – 12:15 | Lunch |
| 12:15 – 12:30 | Travel to Site 2 – Jaffin Farm Forest |
| 12:30 – 1:30 | Site 2 – Jaffin Farm Forest – NWC as an associate species and cedar regeneration |
| 1:30 – 1:45 | Travel to Site 3 – VLT Mud Pond Demonstration Forest |
| 1:45 – 3:45 | VLT Mud Pond Demonstration Forest – Northern White Cedar Swamp |
| 3:45 – 4:00 | Travel back to Caspian Beach Public Lot |

This event has been assigned 5.5 Category 1 CFE credits by the Society of American Foresters