

Learn-and-Burn Workshop Spring 2020 Agenda

Controlled Burning for Native Species Habitat

Target Date: March 28th

Backup Date: April 4th

Location: DuPont State Recreational Forest, North Carolina

“Indoor” Session

Location: High Falls Picnic Area

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 9:00-9:30am | Registration |
| 9:30-9:35am | Welcome and Introductions - Forest Stewards Guild |
| 9:35-11:15am | Sit-Down Presentations <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 9:35: Shortleaf Pine-Oak Ecosystem Restoration and the Role of Fire (Nick Biemiller, Forest Stewards Guild)• 10:00: Using Fire as a Tool for Habitat Management (Clint Barden & Jonathan McCall NCWRC)• 10:25: What’s Happening at DuPont? (Wesley Sketo, DuPont State Forest)• 10:50: What are the Resources Available to Landowners to Burn Their Property? (Michael Cheek, NCFS) |
| 11:15-12:15pm | Tabling Session. Partners are available for participants to ask follow-up questions they may have.
Confirmed Partners: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Consortium of Appalachian Fire Managers and Scientists• Mountain Valleys RC&D• NC Sandhills PBA• NC State Extension• NC Forest Service• NC Wildlife Resources Commission• NC State Parks• Wildwood Consulting |
| 12:15-1:00pm | Catered Lunch |
| 1:00-1:15pm | Prescribed fire briefing and move to burn location |

Outdoor Session

Location: 2.5 acre burn near picnic area

- | | |
|-------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1:15-3:15pm | Live Burn |
| 3:15-3:45pm | Post-Burn Fire Effects and Final Q&A |
| 3:45-4:00pm | Exit Survey |

A big THANK YOU to our sponsors and partners for making the space available, the lunch possible, and overall, for making a richer, more valuable, and more lasting experience with their presence.

Consortium of
Appalachian Fire Managers & Scientists

